St. Michael Proposed Capital Campaign

It is indeed a blessing to look forward to our 136th church anniversary in September of this year while also reflecting back on some of our traditions and people who have served as the foundation for our church family. Simultaneously, the Vestry has heard your concerns and expectations for carrying the torch forward with growth (spiritual and in numbers), enhancement and community outreach. Each of these concepts insinuates change. As the Vestry listens to your expectations and the changes required to achieve our goals, your feedback suggests that some of the first changes required include our church accommodations and space, such as obtaining indoor and handicapped accessible bathrooms and a larger area to grow our Sunday School, among other facility considerations. The Vestry is prayerfully doing its homework to examine such possible change with your feedback and a commitment to helping more people develop and nurture a relationship with God through St. Michael. To this end, our Rector, Father Hugh and the Vestry are currently assembling a Capital Campaign Committee to examine and lead this church mission and wherein Linda Dilworth has agreed to Chair the effort. Please contact Linda (LindaDilworth@aol.com or 850.508.1794 mobile) or the church office should you be interested in serving on the St. Michael Capital Campaign Committee. The Vestry will consider a 136th Anniversary Capital Campaign kickoff. As we cautiously and prayerfully proceed, our hope is placed in God, who guides us and provides for all our needs and where our perfect model is Christ who loved the church and gave himself up for her (Ephesians 5:25). Please keep this effort and Capital Campaign Committee in your prayers.

From the Rector's Desk

Lost in Heaven

'Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls'. (Matt 11:28-30). Perhaps the most sobering duty for us as priests is to help prepare members of our flock to die-and to go on to be with the Lord. Every time I am called upon to do so, I walk away thinking that one day, someone will be standing over me proclaiming these words from the Book of Common Prayer:-

'Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant N. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your fold, a lamb of your flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive N into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.'

These very words were spoken over our sister Dorothy as she prepared to go from this world. Time did not permit me to get to know her well. In fact, much of our contact was in the form of sick calls, whether at the hospital or her home. Those moments were special, and she always seem to reserve a smile for me. You could have sensed her discomfort at times, but yet she made sure that she showed her appreciation, by offering that wide smile of hers. Eugene tells me that as she slipped away, moving from time to eternity, that smile was again present – indeed for the last time. Why would she feel the need to still smile even in that moment? I want to believe that as she looked up, she saw the Lord Jesus beckoning her to come home. Yes, to leave behind the pain and distress of body, the doctors and the various medications/procedures she had to submit herself to. Who knows? Maybe she heard the Lord Jesus say, Dorothy come home, for indeed you are weary and have been carrying heavy burdens. Come and enjoy the rest I have reserved for you. Dorothy had another reason to smile, for as I visited her in the days before she passed, I kept running into family members both hers and Eugene's. I suppose at times Eugene might have felt that he was the owner of a small motel. The voices of those loved ones must have provided comfort to Dorothy's distressed soul. Now Dot is gone home to the one who gave her life. The one who promised her a place in his kingdom, indeed life for ever more, leaving behind Eugene and all those whom she loved so dearly when she sojourned among us. Let us as good Catholics pray for the repose of her soul and ask our great and gracious God to comfort all those who would dearly miss her. May she rest in peace and rise in Glory.

Fr. Hugh+

At the time of writing, we still do not have any firm details regarding the funeral service planned for Grace Episcopal Church in Palm Beach. It was Dorothy's wish that she be buried beside her father. We will of course have an opportunity to celebrate her life and ministry among us at a time to be determined by Eugene and the family.

SPECIAL PRAYERS

Father, you have made all people with eyes to see you at work in the world, ears to hear you cry out when right suffers wrong, when justice is brought low. Give to the people of our nation courage to stand up for goodness and right-doing in the face of an oppressive spirit, and courage to believe we may restore, in accordance with your gracious will, a light to enlighten the nations and the people with your truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY/ANNIVERSARY TO OUR CHURCH FAMILY!

Ronald & Herma Taylor (7/22), Dourest Robinson (7/24), Sam & Sharal Jugger (7/27).

Birthday Prayer

Watch over thy children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may thy peace, which passeth understanding, abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

God our Father, who made men and women to live together in families: we pray that marriage may be held in honor; that husbands and wives may live together faithfully, according to their vows; and that members of every family may grow in mutual love and understanding. In courtesy and kindness, so that they may bear one another’s burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ; for His name’s sake. Amen.
