United Thank Offering (UTO) is a ministry of the Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church. UTO is a personal spiritual discipline of thanksgiving that supports God's mission throughout the world. Through daily prayer and tangible offerings, lives are changed in very real ways. UTO Ingatherings are held twice yearly, Spring (new growth) and Fall (harvest). Blue boxes are used throughout the year to collect coins of thankfulness. Please return a portion of God's daily blessings to you by offering your UTO on Sunday, November 11th or the 18th during our Fall Ingathering. Spring Ingathering will be held in May. UTO is an outreach ministry of SMAA ECW. Partial information was taken from The UTO web site uto_overview_brochure_eng. Thank you, ECW UTO Committee.

From the Rector's Desk

A Brief Meditation

Today's reading appointed from the Book of Job, leaves us with a multitude of questions. Indeed we are left wondering as we ruminate on Job's sufferings, whether there is hope for us human beings. Who will heal the wound of Job? Who will restore all that he has lost? Who will quiet his tormented mind? Who will descend into Sheol to deliver him, if peradventure, he was to die? However, the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that there is a high priest who holds his priesthood permanently (Jesus), and who continuously makes intercession for all who suffer (Heb 7:24-25). He is both the priest who offers and the offering as well. He was like us in every respect, though without sin. He is like us still and evermore, knowing what we suffer and the pain we undergo. He is the one who knows that we weep and who brings consolation. He is the refuge in time of need.

Our gospel speaks today of a man named Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus. He was a blind beggar, forced to rely on the goodness of others. When he heard that Jesus was coming, he began to cry out. Many who were present that day, ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly. Mark says, Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here". I say to you today, stand where you are, for Jesus stands with you. As you do, do not fail to call on him, for he is sure to hear your cry.

Proctor family to visit

We will be joined on next Sunday, November 4, 2018 by the descendants of Antonio, George and John Proctor – free black men who lived here in Tallahassee back in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Tallahassee Hidden History will hold a historical marker in their memory on Saturday November 3, 2018 at the Old City Cemetery and that activity will be followed by exhibits and special presentations at Rutgers Home on North Calhoun Street followed by a Trolley Tour of Downtown Tallahassee. Cornell Proctor will do one of the readings at the celebration of Eucharist next Sunday.

Cancer Awareness Month

We were reminded on Friday, with the passing of Tyrone Gayle that cancer is no respecter of persons. Today we want to give thanks to God for all cancer survivors. Dr. Shaun Laurie, has kindly consented to deliver a special address as we gather in fellowship.

SPECIAL PRAYERS

Father, you have made all people with eyes to see you at work in the world, ears to hear you cry out when right suffers wrong, when justice is brought low. Give to the people of our nation courage to stand up for goodness and right-doing in the face of an oppressive spirit, and courage to believe we may restore, in accordance with your gracious will, a light to enlighten the nations and the people with your truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for the Hurricane Season

Almighty and everlasting God, Lord of Heaven and Earth: Grant unto us thy suppliant people, protection against hurricanes, earthquakes, and other calamities; that in tranquility of weather we may rejoice in the comfort we desire and may always make right use of thy bountiful goodness: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
