

GOOD NEWS OUTREACH MINISTRY – The Area Agency on Aging is asking for donations to help seniors affected by Hurricane Michael. They are in need of adult incontinent supplies - disposable pads, baby wipes, rash guard cream/ointment, nutrition drinks such as Boost and Ensure, flashlights/batteries, water, hygiene products, towels, etc. Many communities may not have power for many weeks or longer so non-perishables of any sort are welcome. Good News Outreach will be collecting items at the administrative office 347 Office Plaza Drive for Area Agency on Aging. Thank you in advance for any assistance.

CHOIR NEWS – There will be rehearsal every Sunday morning at 9:15 am until further notice.

Christian Stewardship – A Final Look

I trust that the sermons preached during this period and the meditations offered via the rector's desk, have afforded us all an opportunity to look at our lives – for we know that we are all stewards, and also, to whom much is given, much is required. I am often reminded of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's description of Jesus who he labelled the man for others. Said Bonhoeffer, he gave his time, (over those three years of ministry), he shared his talent (his gift of healing) and when he had nothing else to give, he gave himself (his life on Calvary's Cross). As stewards, we are all called to pattern our lives after the Christ, who came to show us how to live, love and respond to the goodness of a magnanimous God.

Remembrance Project

On Saturday January 12, 2019, St. Michael and all Angels opened its doors to close to a hundred persons who came from all walks of life, to be part of a dialogue that hopefully will result in this Remembrance Project. This effort originated more than two years ago at St. John's Episcopal Church. First Presbyterian joined in support of this laudable effort, and now there are some 14 organizations/churches who have signed on. In a nutshell, this is a project to create a memorial recognizing four victims of lynching here in Leon County. So in addition to erecting a plaque/marker, the eventual goal is to conduct a service of remembrance and reconciliation, and also to maintain a program of education that will facilitate a continuing conversation regarding the issues of race and justice.

Such was the occasion that featured FAMU history professors Darius Young and David Jackson as well as Kiara Boone, Deputy Director of Community Education for the Equal Justice Initiative. From a personal standpoint, I was encouraged by the size and diversity of the gathering. I pray that that meeting will give further impetus to this project, for our community needs to confront this dark period of our shared history. Indeed the resurgence of hate speech and white supremacy is evidence enough that as one of Faulker's in characters Requiem for a nun said, "The past is never dead. It's not even past."

Presiding Bishop's visit to SMAA – February 5, 2019

The excitement is building and as a parish we are getting ready to host the Most Reverend Michael Bruce Curry, the first African American to serve in this prestigious position. A donation of $50 is being asked of all attendees. Make sure you talk with Alexis, Byron or Elizabeth after mass today.

SPECIAL PRAYERS

Father, you have made all people with eyes to see you at work in the world, ears to hear you cry out when right suffers wrong, when justice is brought low. Give to the people of our nation courage to stand up for goodness and right-doing in the face of an oppressive spirit, and courage to believe we may restore, in accordance with your gracious will, a light to enlighten the nations and the people with your truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Capital Campaign Prayer

Most gracious Lord Jesus Christ and generous source of all abundance, in gratitude we invite you to expand our hearts as we seek to increase and improve this place of worship, peace, healing, forgiveness, outreach, service and fellowship. May all who enter here be restored and strengthened on their journey of faith. Guide us Heavenly Father, that we may make manifest your vision of a beloved and enlightened church and community, and be a shining example of the living presence of the Holy Spirit. May we and our Capital Campaign be a channel of God's abundant grace. Through Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

THANK YOU – Fellowship today is prepared by the Hospitality Committee.

Flowers on the Altar was given in thanksgiving and blessings by Mr. & Mrs. Junious Brown.

Presentation of the Offering – prayer to be said

Father, we offer you these gifts which you have given us; this bread, this wine, this money. With them we offer ourselves, our lives, and our work, to become through your Holy Spirit, a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice. As this bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, so may we and all your people become channels of your love; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR VISION is to be a cornerstone for serving the spiritual needs of the greater Tallahassee community, extending an eternal invitation to join our caring parish and to enrich the spiritual life of all people as we journey with Christ.

OUR MISSION is to experience the Gospel of Jesus Christ by feeding the mind, body and spirit of our community in fellowship and service.

HOLY COMMUNION: All baptized Christians are encouraged to receive the real and living presence of Christ in Holy Communion. To receive the Bread, extend your hands upward, palms crossed. When receiving the Wine, please guide the chalice as it is offered. If you prefer, you may leave the Bread on your palm for the person administering the chalice to dip into the Wine and place on your tongue. All persons are welcome to give thanks for God’s blessings at the altar rail, simply crossing your arms at the wrist with fingertips extending upward towards your shoulders.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY/ANNIVERSARY TO OUR CHURCH FAMILY!

Watch over thy children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may thy peace, which passeth understanding, abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
