From the Rector's Desk

Looking into the future

This week's gospel story forms part of the many predictions that Jesus made towards the end of his life. There he was standing before the magnificent temple which took a while to build. Keep in mind that the temple was built on a mountain – Mount Zion. It dominated the top of the mountain and when viewed from a distance, its white stones made it appear as if the mountain was snow-capped!! Not only was the temple majestic, but it was also new. Its construction was the crowning achievement of King Herod's reign. He was called Herod the Great, because he managed a successful reign during which he built the temple among other structures. King Herod had now been dead for many years by the time Jesus and his disciples gathered at the temple. This was the same Herod who had given the order for all two-year olds to be killed at Jesus' birth. So there was Jesus saying that Herod's great new temple would soon lie in ruins. The disciples must have been shocked when Jesus made that prediction for, they viewed the magnificence of the temple and wondered how anyone could destroy such a formidable structure. They would have also wondered why Jesus would condemn a building dedicated to the worship of God. Yet the events of which Jesus spoke did come to pass. Jerusalem fell to the Roman army in AD 70 after a desperate siege in which the inhabitants of the city were reduced to cannibalism. Once they gained entrance to the city, the Roman soldiers leveled it – leveled the city and the temple as well.

Why many asked in those days, why would God allow such magnificence to be reduced to rubble? Maybe it had something to do with what regular attendees of that temple failed to comply with – yes, what God required of them. Is there a message for the church in our day as we too seek to build magnificent structures? Yes, I believe so for our focus must always be people, even though we erect buildings, so the future programs we envisage, can be housed here at SMAA. As we look into the future, and head towards the construction phase of our Capital Campaign, let us keep before us what happened a long time ago to those who refused to listen to the prophets and their warnings, especially the prophetic warnings of Jesus himself.

Fr. Hugh+

SPECIAL PRAYERS

Father, you have made all people with eyes to see you at work in the world, ears to hear you cry out when right suffers wrong, when justice is brought low. Give to the people of our nation courage to stand up for goodness and right-doing in the face of an oppressive spirit, and courage to believe we may restore, in accordance with your gracious will, a light to enlighten the nations and the people with your truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for the Hurricane Season

Almighty and everlasting God, Lord of Heaven and Earth: Grant unto us thy suppliant people, protection against hurricanes, earthquakes, and other calamities; that in tranquility of weather we may rejoice in the comfort we desire and may always make right use of thy bountiful goodness: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Capital Campaign Prayer

Most gracious Lord Jesus Christ and generous source of all abundance, in gratitude we invite you to expand our hearts as we seek to increase and improve this place of worship, peace, healing, forgiveness, outreach, service and fellowship. May all who enter here be restored and strengthened on their journey of faith. Guide us Heavenly Father, that we may make manifest your vision of a beloved and enlightened church and community, and be a shining example of the living presence of the Holy Spirit. May we and our Capital Campaign be a channel of God's abundant grace. Through Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.
