The Lessons

The people sit

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah 40:21:31

Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing. Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble. To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? Says the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high and see: who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel. "My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God"? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

The Word of the Lord

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 147:1-12, 21c (Read responsively by whole verse)

1. Hallelujah! How good it is to sing praises to our God!*
how pleasant it is to honor him with praise!

2. The Lord rebuilds Jerusalem;* he gathers the exiles of Israel

- 3. He heals the broken hearted* and builds up their wounds.
- 4. He counts the number of the stars* and calls them all by their names.*
- 5. Great is our Lord and mighty in power;* there is no limit to his wisdom.
- 6. The Lord lifts up the lowly,* but casts the wicked to the ground.*
- 7. Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving;* make music to our God upon the harp.
- 8. He covers the heavens with clouds* and prepares rain for the earth;*
- 9. He makes grass to grow upon the mountains* and green plants to serve mankind.
- 10. He provides food for flocks and herds* and for the young ravens when they cry.*
- 11. He is not impressed by the might of a horse;* he has no pleasure in the strength of a man;
- 12. But the Lord has pleasure in those who fear him,* in those who await his gracious favor.

21c Hallelujah!

Glory be to the Father

And to the Son

And to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning,

Is now,

And ever shall be, world without end.

Amen.

A Reading from St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians (1 Corinthians 9:16-23)

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel. For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some, I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn    H567 v1, Your Hands, O Lord, in Days of Old            St. Matthew

1. Your hands, O Lord, in days of old
Were strong to heal and save;
They triumphed o'er disease and death,
O'er darkness and the grave.
To you they went, the blind, the deaf, the palsied, and the lame,
The leper set and shunned, the sick and those in shame.

The Holy Gospel

Gospeler    The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus according to Mark (1:29-39)

People        Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus and his disciples left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them. That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

After the Gospel, Reader says:

The Gospel of the Lord.

People        Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn    H567 v2, Your Hands, O Lord, in Days of Old            St. Matthew

2. And then your touch brought life and health, gave hearing, speech, and sight;
While strength renewed and health restored acclaimed you Lord of light;
And so, O Lord, be near to bless, with all your healing pow'r,
In troubled home, in crowded street, in sorrow's saddest hour.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, True God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Father, we offer you these gifts which you have given us; this bread, this wine, this money. With them we offer ourselves, our lives, and our work, to become through your Holy Spirit, a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice. As this bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, so may we and all your people become channels of your love; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great ThanksgivingEucharistic Prayer A (remain standing)Celebrant The Lord be with you.People And also with you.Celebrant Lift up your hearts.People We lift them to the LordCelebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.People It is right to give him thanks and praise.The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Celebrant and People

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, Lord God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest

(The people stand or kneel)

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ has risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And led us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion Hymn H592 v1-4, Teach Me, My God and King Carlisle

1. Teach me, my God and King, in all things thee to see,
and what I do in anything, do it as for thee,
2. To scorn the senses' sway, while still to Thee I tend;
In all I do be Thou the Way, in all be Thou the End.
3. All may of Thee partake; nothing so small can be,
but draws, when acted for Thy sake, greatness and worth from Thee.
4. If done t'obey Thy laws, e'en servile labors shine;
Hallowed is toil, if this the cause, the means set work divine.

Meditation Hymn Musical Interlude

A Pastoral Letter from the Presiding Bishop

St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church
1405 Melvin St
Tallahassee, FL 32301-4232

Dear Friend in Christ,

We are working for justice and peace.

This past year has presented each of us with many challenges as we seek to live the Way of Love. We learned the logistics of physical distancing and discerned the qualities of masks that suit our style while trying to ensure social distancing. Six feet of distance between ourselves and our neighbors changed the way we greet one another and worship. It has changed who we know our neighbors to be and made us aware of their suffering, while expanding our world view. Through it all, we as Christians and followers of Jesus are undaunted. We worship together, apart. We walk the Way of Love, in our homes and in the streets. We make room for new members of our congregations and are often surprised at the reach of our community of faith.

The Episcopal Church has responded consistently and faithfully at every turn.

- The Offices of Evangelism and Communications jointly guided parishes and dioceses as they moved to online gatherings, sorting our technical issues, and reconsidering how to welcome new church members through videoconferencing.
- The Offices of Government Relations and Creation Care, following the principles laid out at General Convention, advocated for the protection of the Alaska national Wildlife Refuge
- More than 1,000 people participated in three Racial Reconciliation webinars seeking the path toward racial justice and peace through the resources and work of The Church.

The Church – your Church – adapted and learned new ways to share the Gospel. Your Church, through prayer and action, is making a difference. We were able to do this because of the support from faithful Episcopalians like you. If you are able to make a gift this year please do so, first to your parish, second to your diocese, and if you are so moved, to The Episcopal Church's Bless Annual Appeal, as well.

A gift of any amount will help us continue to adopt and prepare your Church for the new challenges ahead. Will you consider a gift of %0?

You can make a gift by

- Online – episcopalchurch.org/give/annual-appeal
- Call – (800) 334-7626 ext 6002

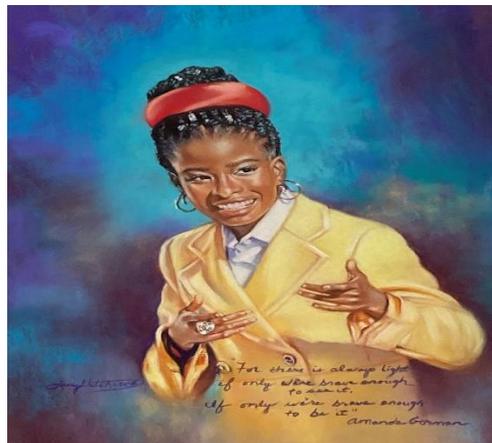

In closing, we are delighted to share with you in this newsletter The Church at Work which contains stories about the gospel work you help make possible through your gift to The Episcopal Church's Bless Annual Appeal. I remain

Your brother in Christ,

The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry

Presiding Bishop and Primate

The Episcopal Church

SPECIAL PRAYERS

Father, you have made all people with eyes to see you at work in the world, ears to hear you cry out when right suffers wrong, when justice is brought low. Give to the people of our nation courage to stand up for goodness and right-doing in the face of an oppressive spirit, and courage to believe we may restore, in accordance with your gracious will, a light to enlighten the nations and the people with your truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Capital Campaign Prayer

Most gracious Lord Jesus Christ and generous source of all abundance, in gratitude we invite you to expand our hearts as we seek to increase and improve this place of worship, peace, healing, forgiveness, outreach, service and fellowship. May all who enter here be restored and strengthened on their journey of faith. Guide us Heavenly Father, that we may make manifest your vision of a beloved and enlightened church and community, and be a shining example of the living presence of the Holy Spirit. May we and our Capital Campaign be a channel of God's abundant grace. Through Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Collect for the Coronavirus Pandemic

Almighty God, Heavenly Healer, we bring to you all who are affected by our present pandemic; for the infirm and infected, the anxious and afraid. By your power defend us and heal us. Let us see one another not as vectors of infection, but at opportunities for love and service, for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
