Opening prayer

Almighty God, giver of every good gift, we pray that you would look graciously upon the Diocese of Florida, and so guide the minds and hearts of the Nominating Committee as they prayerfully select candidates for the election of the next bishop of this diocese, that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries: Guide also the minds and hearts of the candidates who will come before the Nominating Committee, that this process will be a time of discernment and growth in their lives and ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The Lessons

The people sit

A Reading from the Book of Samuel (5:1-5, 9-10)

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, "Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel." So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inward. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord, the God of hosts, was with him.

The Word of the Lord

People Thanks be to God

Psalm 48 (Read responsively by whole verse)

1. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised;
In the city of our God is his holy hill.

*2. Beautiful and lofty, the joy of all the earth,
Is the hill of Zion,*
the very center of the world and the city of the great King.*

3. God is in her citadels;*
he is known to be her sure refuge.

*4. Behold, the kings of the earth assembled* and marched forward together.*

5. They looked and were astounded;*
they retreated and fled in terror.

*6. Trembling seized them there;*
they writhed like a woman in childbirth, like ships of the sea
when the east wind shatters them.*

7. As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of the Lord of hosts,
in the city of our God;*
God has established her for ever.

*8. We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, *
in the midst of your temple.*

9. Your praise, like your Name, O God, reaches to the world's end;*
your right hand is full of justice.

*10. Let Mount Zion be glad and the cities of Judah rejoice,* because of your judgments.*

11. Make the circuit of Zion; walk round about her;*
count the number of her towers.

*12. Consider well her bulwarks;
examine her strongholds;* that you may tell those who come after*

13. This God is our God for ever and ever;*
he shall be our guide for evermore.

Glory be to the Father
And to the Son
And to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning,
Is Now,
And ever shall be, world without end
Amen.

A Reading from Paul's Second Epistle to the Corinthians (12:2-10)

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows—was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

The Word of the Lord.

People                      Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

A334 v1, Break Thou the Bread of Life

Bread of Life

1. Break now the bread of life, dear Lord, to me, as once you broke the loaves beside the sea.
Beyond the sacred page I seek you, Lord;
my spirit waits for you, O living Word.

The Holy Gospel

Gospeler

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark (6:1-13)

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters with us?" And they took offense at him. Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

After the Gospel the Reader says:

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn

A334 v2, Break Thou the Bread of Life

Bread of Life

2. Bless your own word of truth, dear Lord, to me, as when you blessed the bread by Galilee.

Then shall all bondage cease, all fetters fall;

and I shall find my peace, my All in all!

Sermon

The Reverend Hugh Chapman

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, True God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

The Celebrant says

Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

Jesus we know, and he is on the throne.

5. It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease, and Jesus call to heaven's perfect peace.

Presentation of the Offering – prayer to be said

Father, we offer you these gifts which you have given us; this bread, this wine, this money. With them we offer ourselves, our lives, and our work, to become through your Holy Spirit, a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice. As this bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, so may we and all your people become channels of your love; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A (remain standing)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Celebrant and People

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, Lord God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

(The people stand or kneel)

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

From the Rector's Desk

Remembering the Past

After the service, the congregation moved from Fisk Chapel to St. Anselm's Episcopal Church to bless a memorial marker honoring Grizzard, his brother Henry Grizzard, and Samuel Smith. All three of these African American men were lynched in or nearby Nashville, as Deane discovered with the help of the Equal Justice Initiative. The Rev. Nontombi Naomi Tutu, originally from South African but a Nashville resident of 18 years, gave the service's homily, calling on the church to take ownership of its history and repent for its sins. She prayed:

"Lord we bring before you the Grizzard brothers and Samuel Smith, and we say truly their blood is on our hands, and we come to you asking for forgiveness. Let us remember that in claiming these stones, we are claiming our own humanity, and saying "Yes Lord, we desire a new covenant."

The worship service came after nearly three years of effort within the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee as they sought to address racism.

Finally in 2015, Nashville's St. Anselm's Episcopal Church sponsored a resolution at the diocese's annual convention calling on church members to pray for the lives of those affected by racism, and instructing those ordained to create opportunities for discussion about racism.

We shall have our own opportunity to atone for what was done to Pierce Taylor (1897), Mick Morris (1909), Richard Hawkins (1937) and Earnest Ponder(1937) at the ceremony planned for July 17, 2021, at 3:00 pm at Cascade Park under the Oak Tree of corner of East Gaines and South Meridian Streets. Do make a special effort to be in attendance.

AS WE CELEBRATE

Today is Independence Day!! As a nation and people we rightfully pause to give thanks and praise for these many years of freedom, peace, and prosperity. Yes, the Lord has been good to us. Look at the strides we have made over these two hundred forty-five years – we are truly the envy of the nations of the earth. And yet as we celebrate, we must acknowledge the painful divisions that continue to exist among us, the widening Inequities and the malicious hate filled rhetoric that assaults our sensibilities. Collectively the aforementioned prevent us from truly being "One Nation under God." So let us give thanks but also ask the God of Heaven to forgive our nation's sins and help us to become one people by His Grace.
