Almighty God, giver of every good gift, we pray that you would look graciously upon the Diocese of Florida, and so guide the minds and hearts of the Nominating Committee as they prayerfully select candidates for the election of the next bishop of this diocese, that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries: Guide also the minds and hearts of the candidates who will come before the Nominating Committee, that this process will be a time of discernment and growth in their lives and ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lessons

The people sit

A Reading from the Second Book of Samuel (23:1-7)

Now these are the last words of David: The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel: The spirit of the Lord speaks through me, his word is upon my tongue. The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God, is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land. Is not my house like this with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire? But the godless are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be picked up with the hand; to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear. And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.

The Word of the Lord

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 132:1-13,[14-19]- (Read responsively by whole verse)

1. Lord, remember David,*

and all the hardship he endured;

2. How he swore an oath to the Lord
and vowed a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob;*
3. "I will not come under the roof of my house,"*
nor climb up into my bed;
4. I will not allow my eyes to sleep,
nor let my eyelids slumber;*
- 5. Until I find a place for the Lord,*
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob."
6. "The ark! We heard it was in Ephratah;*
we found it in the fields of Jearim.
- 7. Let us go to God's dwelling place;*
let us fall upon our knees before his footstool."
8. Arise, O Lord, into your resting-place,*
you and the ark of your strength.
- 9. Let your priests be clothed with righteousness;*
let your faithful people sing with joy.
10. For your servant David's sake,
do not turn away the face of your Anointed.*
- 11. The Lord has sworn an oath to David;*
in truth, he will not break it:
12. "A son, the fruit of your body*
will I set upon your throne.
- 13. If you children keep my covenant and my testimonies that I shall teach them,*
their children will sit upon your throne for evermore."
14. [For the Lord has chosen Zion;
he has desired her for his habitation:*
- 15]"This shall be my resting-place forever;*
here will I dwell, for I delight in her.
16. I will surely bless her provisions,
and satisfy her poor with bread.*
- 17. I will clothe her priests with salvation,*
and her faithful people will rejoice and sing.

18. There will I make the horn of David flourish;
I have prepared a lamp for my Anointed.*

19. As for his enemies, I will clothe them with shame;*
but as for him, his crown will shine.”]

Glory be to the Father
And to the Son
And to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning,
Is now,
And ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

A Reading from the Revelation to John (1:4b-8)

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn H460 v1, Alleluia! Sing to Jesus Hyfrydol

1. Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!

His the scepter, His the throne.

Alleluia! His the triumph,

His the victory alone.

Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion

Thunder like a mighty flood:

"Jesus out of ev'ry nation

Has redeemed us by His blood."

The Holy Gospel

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John (18:33-37)

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?" Pilate replied, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here." Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

After the Gospel the Reader says:

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn H460 v2, Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

Hyfrydol

2. Alleluia! Not as orphans

Are we left in sorrow now;

Alleluia! He is near us;

Faith believes, nor questions how.

Though the cloud from sight received Him

When the forty days were o'er,

Shall our hearts forget His promise:

"I am with you evermore?"

Sermon

Mrs. Alexis Roberts McMillan

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For his sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Presentation of the Offering – prayer to be said

Father, we offer you these gifts which you have given us; this bread, this wine, this money. With them we offer ourselves, our lives, and our work, to become through your Holy Spirit, a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice. As this bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, so may we and all your people become channels of your love; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A (remain standing)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People* And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People* We lift them to the Lord

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People* It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Celebrant and People

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, Lord God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

(The people stand or kneel)

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Diocesan Convention

The chair of nominations for our upcoming convention Mtr. Amy Slater, is seeking nominees for 1. Diocesan Council and 2. The Standing Committee. Those elected will serve three (3) year terms. This special outreach is intentional for two (2) reasons – a. we are in the process of preparing to welcome a new Bishop in our midst and b. to ensure that African Americans are seen to be in decision making positions in the Diocese. Let the rector know if you are interested.

From the Rector's Desk

Falling in Love – Another reflection shared with me.

Our writer says:-

When we fall in love (perhaps for the first time), we are all excited, energized and eager to tell the world about how awesome our newfound love is!! What we do? We sing their praises to anyone who will listen – and we often seem to walk on air – nothing else seems to matter. Overtime, the excitement wanes for a multitude of reasons. Initially we begin to take the person for granted (he or she will always be there) and yes with all the hustle and bustle of life, somehow without realizing it, a gulf appears, some awkwardness follows by what we call a “distance,” developing. Before long we begin to wonder why this relationship that we so cherished, now lacks the excitement and buzz it used to portend. What went wrong we ask ourselves –knowing full well what we contributed to its demise.

This scenario is replicated in the life of us Christians who “fall in love” with Jesus as some of us describe our conversion. We are so exuberant in our newfound faith that we cannot help but share what this new life In Christ means for us. But then life happens, and we get all busy with careers and whatever else is happening in our lives, and before long, our love relationship with the Lord suffers. Before long we stop reading our bibles, attending worship, and yes even praying. Indeed the number one ingredient that is absolutely necessary for the maintenance for any “love relationship” is communication. Our relationship with the Lord of our lives is no different. As soon as we stop communicating with Him, we drift away. Do you remember the story in the gospels about Peter, who walked on water – but as soon as he took his eyes off of Jesus, he began to sink? So what should we believers do? I tell you – nurture your love relationship with Jesus every day through prayer, reflection and a reading of God's holy word. That is the only way we will remain rooted and grounded in our faith – remain in our love relationship with the Lord.
