INSTRUMENTAL PRELUDE

OPENING PRAYER

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Savior, the Prince of Peace: Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that, as there is but one Body and one Spirit, one hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Processional Hymn H397, v1-3, Now Thank We All Our God

Nun Danket Alle Gott

1 Now thank we all our God,
with heart, and hands, and voices,
who wondrous things hath done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms hath blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God, through all our life be near us!
with ever joyful hearts,
and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven, eternal, Triune God, whom earth and heaven adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be, evermore.

THE LESSONS

The people sit

A Reading from the Book of Hosea (11:1-11)

When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son. The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals, and offering incense to idols. Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them up in my arms; but they did not know that I healed them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love. I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them. They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me. The sword rages in their cities, it consumes their oracle-priests, and devours because of their schemes. My people are bent on turning away from me. To the Most High they call, but he does not raise them up at all. How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion grows warm and tender. I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and no mortal, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come in wrath. They shall go after the Lord, who roars like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west. They shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria; and I will return them to their homes, says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107:1-9, 43 (Read responsively by whole verse)

1. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,*
and his mercy endures forever.
2. Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim* that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
3. He gathered them out of the lands;*
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
4. Some wandered in desert wastes;*
they found no way to a city where they might dwell.

5. They were hungry and thirsty;*
their spirits languished within them.

6. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their distress.

7. He put their feet on a straight path* to go to a city where they might dwell.

8. Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy
and the wonders he does for his children.

9. For he satisfies the thirsty* and fills the hungry with good things.

43. Whoever is wise will ponder these things,
and consider well the mercies of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, And to the Son, And to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, Is now, And ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Reading from the Epistle to the Colossians (3:1-11)

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things-- anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual HymnH594, v 1&2, God of Grace and God of gloryCwm Rhondda*

1. God of grace and God of glory, on thy people pour thy power;
 crown thine ancient Church's story;
 bring her bud to glorious flower.
 Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
 for the facing of this hour,
 for the facing of this hour.

2. Lo! The hosts of evil round us scorn thy Christ, assail his ways!
 From the fears that long have bound us free our hearts to faith and praise
 grant us wisdom, grant us courage
 for the living of these days,
 For the living of these days.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus according to Luke (12:13-21)

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

After the Gospel the Reader says:

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.Sequence Hymn*H594, v 3-4, God of Grace and God of GloryCwm Rhondda*

3 Cure thy children's warring madness, bend our pride to thy control;
 shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
 rich in things and poor in soul.
 Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
 lest we miss thy kingdom's goal,
 lest we miss thy kingdom's goal.

4. Save us from weak resignation to the evils we deplore;
 let the gift of thy salvation
 be our glory evermore.,
 Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
 serving thee whom we adore,
 serving thee whom we adore

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered, death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

5. It is enough: earth's struggles soon shall cease, and Jesus call to heaven's perfect peace.

Father, we offer you these gifts which you have given us; this bread, this wine, this money. With them we offer ourselves, our lives, and our work, to become through your Holy Spirit, a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice. THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The People Stand

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Celebrant and People

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel

Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by Faith, with thanksgiving.

Communion Hymn H685, v1-3, Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me

Toplady

1. Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From Thy wounded side that flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,
Save from wrath and make me pure.

2. Should my tears for ever flow,
Should my zeal no languor know,
All for sin could not atone,
Thou must save, and Thou alone:
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling

3. While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I rise to world's unknown,
And behold Thee on Thy throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

Worth the Risk – a reflection from a sister in Christ

Why is it that some of us have an issue with trusting others? Well, usually it is because of the pain of past experiences – after that, it is hard for any of us to remove that “protective wall” we erect for personal safety. Mind you, sometimes that wall is justified/desirable, and actually is needed, particularly for the times in which we live, with dysfunctional relationships plaguing our lives. However, if our guard is always up, we will never really experience the real joy of getting to know strangers and even our friends, for any relationship close or otherwise, is based on trust and the occasionally letting down of our guard. Such relationships if not properly handled can turn out to be superficial, and as a consequence, meaningless.

Unfortunately, many among us treat the God of Heaven in very much the same manner – not fully trusting Him. So we don't share all that happens in our lives (as if He doesn't know). We can if we want to, pray daily, and seek His guidance for our jaded lives. So what we do? We choose to “fix” things on our own. Then after we have made a thorough mess of everything, then we seek God as a last resort. It would be actually so much easier if we went to Him from the get-go. Mind you there are risks to trusting in God, such as the real risk of having to say no to what He wants us to do (remember His ways are not our ways, and His thoughts not our thoughts!). There are also the other risks to contemplate, like the risks of friends ridiculing us for even believing in God and depending on Him, when we can do it all by ourselves! We believers face ridicule for taking such an approach to life. Has that been your experience? Let's do it anyway and go ahead and put our full faith and trust in the Author of Life. The word promises us the calm assurance of knowing that Jesus will be always there in the most difficult and unpredictable of times. He is worth the risk!!
