Presentation of the Offering – prayer to be said

Father, we offer you these gifts which you have given us; this bread, this wine, this money. With them we offer ourselves, our lives, and our work, to become through your Holy Spirit, a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice. As this bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ, so may we and all your people become channels of your love; through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

A special Request

Historic Emmanuel Episcopal Church, founded in 1880 and built after the Civil War, is seeking to preserve its historic legacy. Plans include:-

- a. the replacement of sill beams and rotted exterior wood.
- b. the caulking of windows
- c. the painting of the exterior etc.

The membership is seeking financial and other donations to assist with their planned renovation. They have asked for as little as $25.00. I would like for us as a parish to consider this request and respond accordingly.

WELCOME TO ST. MICHAEL

*We extend a warm welcome to our guests. Thank you for worshipping with us today. If you are without a church home, we invite you to join our church family. Please sign the guest register, include your home address, phone number and, if you would like to receive the monthly newsletter, news of special events and other happenings, please also add your e-mail address.

HOLY COMMUNION: All baptized Christians are encouraged to receive the real and living presence of Christ in Holy Communion. To receive the Bread, extend your hands upward, palms crossed. When receiving the Wine, please guide the chalice as it is offered. If you prefer, you may leave the Bread on your palm for the person administering the chalice to dip into the Wine and place on your tongue. All persons are welcome to give thanks for God's blessings at the altar rail, simply crossing your arms at the wrist with fingertips extending upward towards your shoulders.

Birthday Prayer

Watch over thy children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may thy peace, which passeth understanding, abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anniversary Prayer

God our Father, who made men and women to live together in families: we pray that marriage may be held in honor; that husbands and wives may live together faithfully, according to their vows; and that members of every family may grow in mutual love and understanding, in courtesy and kindness, so that they may bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ; for His name's sake. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good morning, St. Michael family,

A few weeks ago, Fr. Hugh notified the congregation of vestry decisions that will improve our parish life. Now we are asking for volunteers so that we can get to work.

Very soon we will begin planning for church operations in 2023. The vestry seeks to return to year-round stewardship of members' time, talent and treasure. We would like to task a three-person team with the responsibility to not only conduct our stewardship campaign, but also to continuously monitor stewardship of parishioners' time and talents while our treasurer monitors our treasure (giving). Please let Clerk of Vestry Margaret Edwards know of your interest in being a part of this important ministry before our next vestry meeting on October 10th.

Our Capital Campaign will be moving online. We are seeking to identify members of the congregation who have knowledge, interest and/or experience in digital marketing. This group's responsibility will be to create a profile for our website that can attract donors, both individuals and groups/organizations. Anyone interested in being a part of this critical ministry is encouraged to talk with Junior Warden Charlie Clark.

We look forward to your eager participation.

Election of Coadjutor Bishop

The petition process initiated by the Standing Committee closed on October 3rd, without any applicants coming forward. This means that we shall have only three (3) candidates for the election scheduled for November 19th. Delegates from across the five regions of the Diocese are being reminded to register as soon as possible. Do keep in your prayers Fr. Charlie Holt, Canon Miguel Rosada and Canon Beth Tjoflat, as well as their families.

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK

Thinking of Others

Whilst some among us are fixated on the twists and turns political campaigns are undergoing, the rest of us hopefully, are thinking and praying for those whose lives were shattered because of Hurricane Ian's fury. Many lost everything and will have to rely on the generosity of Floridians and fellow Americans across our country who realized how easily our collective fortunes can change in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. When the opportunity presents itself, do give as generously as you could, for we never know when others will have to come to our aid.

A Reflection a Sister-in-Christ shared with Me

"People watching" is fast becoming a favorite pastime of mine. It is quite interesting to just sit and watch people as they go about their lives. Some are busy speaking on their phones, oblivious to what is happening around them. Others walk purposefully (fast paced often), while there are those who just saunter along their way. We see persons fashionably dressed, while others are casual in their attire, looking all comfortable with themselves. Then there are some who look as though they just climbed out of bed and headed for the street – people have a right to do what they want! If we were to look past the clothing/fashion statement, and the polite smiles and actually take notice of the faces we see, then a different perception may just emerge. For outward appearances are deceptive often masking the pain, heartache, and anxiety many live with each day. You know, everyone is carrying some sort of burden, and if only we tried to see them through God's eyes, perhaps we will begin to treat each other differently. People need to be reminded that God has a purpose for their lives – they may be so consumed by all that is happening to them they could lose sight of what God intends for them – yes, His guidance, direction, and assurance He makes available to all of us. So look out for that opportunity to share His good news with others as we judge less and love more – this is what Jesus asks of me and you, anyway.

Fr. Hugh+

Crosses to be Presented

Those parishioners who would have served on the last vestry, will be presented with designer crosses at the date to be determined. Look out for further details.

SPECIAL PRAYERS

Prayer for the Hurricane Season

Almighty and everlasting God, Lord of Heaven and Earth: Grant unto us thy suppliant people, protection against hurricanes, earthquakes, and other calamities; that in tranquility of weather we may rejoice in the comfort we desire and may always make right use of thy bountiful goodness through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Capital Campaign Prayer

Most gracious Lord Jesus Christ and generous source of all abundance, in gratitude we invite you to expand our hearts as we seek to increase and improve this place of worship, peace, healing, forgiveness, outreach, service and fellowship. May all who enter here be restored and strengthened on their journey of faith. Guide us Heavenly Father, that we may make manifest your vision of a beloved and enlightened church and community, and be a shining example of the living presence of the Holy Spirit. May we and our Capital Campaign be a channel of God's abundant grace. Through Jesus Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Collect for the Coronavirus Pandemic

Almighty God, Heavenly Healer, we bring to you all who are affected by our present pandemic; for the infirm and infected, the anxious and afraid. By your power defend us and heal us.
